Aliso Viejo, CA, May 25, 2011—401(k) Advisors today announced the expansion of its consulting team with the addition of Jason Jeskey, a former practicing ERISA attorney, who joins the firm as a Senior Plan Consultant and ERISA Specialist. In this capacity, Jason will be responsible for servicing clients and providing technical expertise related to plan design, legislative and regulatory issues and other fiduciary matters. As a member of the firm's dedicated ERISA department, he will report to Joel Shapiro, Vice President of ERISA Compliance, who is also a former practicing ERISA attorney.

Jason brings to the position a diverse background in ERISA law, serving most recently as an associate attorney with Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck in their Las Vegas office. As an associate at Brownstein, Jason represented various multiemployer Taft Hartley trust funds and governmental trusteed plans in employee benefit matters including qualified and tax exempt retirement plans (both defined benefit and defined contribution plans). Prior to this he practiced law with Willkie Farr & Gallagher, located in Washington D.C.

Jason earned his BA in mathematics from St. Mary's College of Maryland; his JD from the University of Maryland; and his LL.M. in taxation from the Georgetown University Law Center.

"401(k) Advisors is a team of true specialists and our bench strength continues to increase," comments Nick Della Vedova, President of 401(k) Advisors. "Jason's proven experience and practical application of ERISA law is sure to bring even more depth, clarity and value to the plan sponsors we serve."

401(k) Advisors provides independent retirement plan consulting services to major and mid-sized private and institutional plan sponsors, and currently oversees over $11 billion in assets under advisement. Offices are located in the Midwest, Northeast, Southeast, Southcentral and Western regions of the United States. The firm is recognized for best practices in retirement planning, investment due diligence, vendor service and fee benchmarking, compliance processes, and education for sponsors and participants.
