

401(k) Advisors Expands Austin Office

Welcomes Greg Gaynier to its National Consulting Team

Aliso Viejo, CA, October 11, 2011—401(k) Advisors, one of the largest independent retirement plan consulting firms nationally, announces Greg Gaynier has joined the 401(k) Advisors team in Austin as a Managing Director for the South/Central Texas region. In this capacity Greg will deliver investment consulting services and support to existing plan sponsor clients while advocating ongoing fiduciary best practices.

Greg started in the investment business in the early 80s, spending time at both Merrill Lynch and Dean Witter (now Morgan Stanley). He then worked as a retirement plan wholesaler for more than a decade, including posts with John Hancock (at the time, Manulife) and The Standard. In 2005, Gaynier crossed over to consulting, starting his own firm, Retirement Plan Solutions, LLC.

“401(k) Advisors continues to experience tremendous growth,” comments Nick Della Vedova, President of 401(k) Advisors. “Greg’s deep experience and intensity for the business fits perfectly with our philosophy to help create successful outcomes for employers and employees.”

A graduate of Michigan State University, Greg earned a B.S. with dual majors in Economics and Organizational Psychology. He has passed the FINRA Series 7, 63, 65 & 26 examinations and has earned an Accredited Pension Representative designation from the National Institute of Pension Administrators (NIPA). Greg is actively involved in community affairs and has been named by the Austin YMCA as a “Benefactor of Youth” and “Gold Club Member” for his long term involvement and financial support of underprivileged children’s programs.

401(k) Advisors provides independent retirement plan consulting services to major and mid-sized private and institutional plan sponsors, and currently oversees over $14 billion in assets under advisement. The firm is recognized for best practices in retirement planning, investment due diligence, vendor service and fee benchmarking, compliance processes, and education for sponsors and participants.
